

Welcoming
Your Students . . .

to an Outdoor School Experience.

Convenient Location

Less than 1 hour from most places in the Willamette Valley. Canyonview is easy to find. We're three miles south of Silverton's Oregon Garden.

- ~ Fifteen minutes from Salem.
- ~ One hour from Portland.
- ~ One hour from Corvallis.

✓ Easy lay-out for group sizes up to 100.

Camp layout makes your group management a cinch. Each side of Drift Creek has a group of four cabins and a bathhouse. You can plan your outdoor school easier and get settled faster when you arrive.

Lots of Recreation in any weather

A heated, 8,000 square foot gym & rec center is the key to making the most of a school week. At Canyonview, recreation happens in any weather. Outdoor activities include: A low ropes course/zip line additional charge. Volleyball, softball, horseshoes, canoeing, waterslide, hiking, catch n' release fishing and your own activities.

A Few Outdoor School Subjects:

- ~ Environmental Studies Field, Stream, Forest, Soil
 - ~ Conservation awareness
 - ~ Natural Science
 - ~ Wildlife
 - ~ Outdoor sports
 - ~ Swimming
 - ~ Canoeing
 - ~ Pioneering/Orientation
- The list goes on

Affordable

Several schools have used community support, fund raisers, and grants to give their children an outdoor school experience. We understand the effects of rising costs. You get a per-person charge covering everything except the zip line and life guard costs. You also get adjusted rates depending on the length of your outing.

Good Food Service

Working with children is what we do. The Food Service staff has lots of experience meeting parental concerns. Your students get a nutritious plan served either buffet or family style and you get to concentrate on education.
